Welcome!

Dear Patron,

Welcome to another special performance at the Benedum Center. This theater is owned and operated by The Pittsburgh Cultural Trust. Our goal is to ensure that you, our valued arts patron, are comfortable in our house. Our volunteer ushers are happy to answer your questions or assist with any problems you might have. Please don't hesitate to ask them for assistance.

We also have a professional House Manager on duty at every performance, should you need additional help. Any usher can assist you in finding the House Manager on request.

Thank you for being here. Your patronage is deeply appreciated.
I hope you enjoy the show!

Sincerely,

J. Kevin McMahon

Pittsburgh Ballet Theatre

Batsheva Dance Company

Program

This mesmerizing dance trio explores the fundamental themes of beauty, nature, and existence in a unique, interpretive way. As Naharin herself describes it, "There are three parts to the piece ... Any further explanation is okay, but the best place for me to be in my work is with my feelings. And I wish for (the audience) to be in that place too." Bellus (beautiful) is a breathtaking string of artlessly exuberant solos for ten dancers, set to Glenn Gould's recording of Bach's Goldberg Variations. Humus (earth)—performed by a soloist, a talking television, and five women to a score by ambient maestro Brian Eno—displays unexpected emotional power, and Secus (this, and not this) is an explosive release of movements in blissful solos and duets danced to a raucous mix of pop music, including the Beach Boys' unabashedly joyous You're Welcome.

"His art, which is becoming addictive,
[is] packed with Mr. Naharin's entrancing, poetic texture; no matter the music, it rides on a pulse of its own. Whenever Mr. Naharin's company comes to town,
we have much to be thankful for;
in the case of his new dance, it came three times over."

—The New York Times

"Three... was so beautiful
I could almost not bear it."

Batsheva Dance Company

Biographies

Batsheva's artistic integrity and innovation have earned the company its reputation as one of the most inspirational and sought after companies—a true champion on the global map of performing arts. Batsheva operates throughout the year with its 2 companies (Batsheva Dance Company and the junior Batsheva Ensemble) and 40 dancers. With 250 annual performances in Israel and around the world, the company is considered Israel's leading cultural ambassador.

Batsheva is applauded worldwide in the most prestigious theaters and festivals; including Lincoln Center, BAM's Next Wave Festival, Montpellier Danse, Berlin Festival and more. The company includes dancers from Israel and abroad who are encouraged to affirm their distinct creative gifts either in the rehearsal process or in the creation of their own works during the ongoing 'Batsheva Dancers Create' series. Many of Batsheva's dancers developed their skills during an extensive training period in the junior company, the Batsheva Ensemble. The Ensemble serves as a greenhouse for the next generation of dancers and choreographers, dedicating the majority of its time to Batsheva's comprehensive outreach and education program.

The 2007/2008 performance season brought with it an additional international cast of 16 dancers. This third Batsheva company performed Ohad Naharin's Kamuyot to audiences of school children and young adults throughout Sweden between December 007 and May 2008. This special project is the result of a unique collaboration between Sweden's National Riksteatern and Batsheva.

Led by Artistic Director Ohad Naharin, together with House Choreographer Sharon Eyal, the company's 65 members—dancers, technical crew and administration are driven by a common vision—to excel in art and to strengthen common human values through the power of creativity.

Batsheva Dance Company was founded in 1964 by Martha Graham and Baroness Batsheva De Rothschild. To learn more about Batsheva, please visit www.batsheva.org

Ohad Naharin

Choreographer, Artistic Director

Naharin began his training as a dancer with the Batsheva Dance Company. He came to New York one year later at the invitation of Martha Graham to join her company, as well as to make use of a scholarship to the School of American Ballet. After a year with the Martha Graham Dance Company, he continued his studies at The Juilliard School of Music as well as with Maggie Black and David Howard. He then joined the Maurice Bejart Company in Brussels for one season and made his choreographic debut in 1980 in the Kazuko Hirabayashi studio in New York.

From 1980 to 1990 he performed and worked in New York, where he lived with his wife; the dancer Mari Kajiwaru who died of cancer in 2001. In 1990 he was appointed Artistic Director of the Batsheva Dance Company.

Naharin has been the recipient of many awards and honors, including the Chevalier de l'Ordre des Arts et des Lettres by the French government in 1998, two New York Dance and Performance (Bessie) Awards (for Naharin's Virus at the Brooklyn Academy of Music in 2002 and for Anaphaza at the Lincoln Center Festival in 2003), a Doctor of Philosophy honoris causa by the Weizmann Institute of Science in 2004, and the prestigious Israel Prize for dance in 2005.

Naharin's works are performed by many companies throughout the world, including Nederlands Dans Theater, Frankfurt Ballet, Lyon Opera Ballet, Ballet Nacional d'Espana (Madrid), Cullberg Ballet (Sweden), and the Opera National de Paris, among others.

Batsheva Dance Company Language of the Dance

Gaga: The Dance Language of Batsheva Dance Company

Ohad Naharin, Artistic Director

Gaga was developed by Ohad Naharin out of a serious injury he experienced and comments, "I didn't only develop what was good for me, but I had to develop what was good for other dancers: recognizing one's weaknesses, getting in touch with efficiency of movement and multi-dimensional movement, explosive power, the connection between pleasure, pain, and effort..." Gaga challenges multi layer tasks. It is fundamental for gaga users to be available for this challenge. At once we, the users, can be involved in moving slowly through space while a quick action in our body is in progress. Those dynamics of movement are only a portion of what else might go on at the same time.

We are letting our mind observe and analyze many things at once, we are aware of the connection between effort and pleasure, we connect to the "sense of plenty of time", especially when we move fast, we are aware of the distance between our body parts, we are aware of the friction between flesh and bones, we sense the weight of our body parts, we are aware of where we hold unnecessary tension, we let go only to bring life and efficient movement to where we let go...

We are listening, seeing, measuring, playing with the texture of our flesh, we might be silly, decorating our inside, we can laugh at ourselves.

We learn to love our sweat, we discover our passion to move and connect it to effort, we discover both the animal in us and the power of our imagination.

We learn to appreciate understatement and exaggeration, we discover the difference between joy and pleasure and use both to protect ourselves from injuring and hurting our body, we learn to apply our force in an efficient way and we learn to use "other" forces.

We become more delicate and we recognize the importance of the flow of energy and information through our body in all directions!

We discover the advantage of soft flesh and sensitive hands, we learn to connect to groove even when there is no music.

We become more aware of people in the room and we realize that we are not in the center of it all.

We never look at ourselves in a mirror, there are no mirrors. We become better aware of our form. We connect to the sense of the endless of possibilities.

We explore multi dimensional movement, we enjoy the burning sensation in our muscles, we are ready to snap, we are aware of what we are made of, we are aware of our explosive power and some times we use it.

We change our movement habits by finding new ones, we can be calm and alert at once.

We become available...

Sit here.

Not back there.

The Pittsburgh Cultural Trust Annual Campaign Donors

The Pittsburgh Cultural Trust extends special recognition to the Allegheny Regional Asset District for its significant contributions of operating support.

The Trust is especially grateful to the Howard Heinz Endowment for its ongoing commitment that has been instrumental in the successful development of Pittsburgh's Cultural District.

The Trustees, Development Committee, Circles Board, Corporate Circles Board, Partners Board, Volunteers, and Staff of the Trust extend their thanks and sincere appreciation to the following individual, corporate, business, and foundation donors who have made generous commitments to the Trust's Annual Campaign for operating support from January 12, 2008 through January 12, 2009. It is through their interests and support that the Cultural District continues to flourish.
