1800 Acres

A new play by David Myers / Directed by Alex Helfrecht
Starring Cathy Tyson and Tobi Bakare

Tue 16 Sept - Sun 12 Oct

"I want to hold it in my hands. I want to feel it under my fingernails. I want to be connected to the earth. I want to be connected to a homeland."

Having left Brooklyn to make a new start with her teenage son, Linda, an affluent African-American, buys a ranch in Texas. When the original owner refuses to leave, physical and psychological violence ensue. Demanding his own relationship to the land, Linda's son Jacob begins a mysterious ritual in the moonlight.

Acclaimed Texan playwright David Myers blends comedy, fantasy and tension in this exploration of family, history, birthright and the mystical pull of nature.

"David Myers is one of the most exciting young playwrights we have; smart, radical and funny, his voice is as unique as it is beguiling."

Lola The Life of Lola Montez

Tue 21 Oct - Sun 2 Nov

Lola Montez, the infamous 19th century Spanish dancer, stormed her way through life on a tumultuous journey of seduction, sorrow and success.

Preparing for the last performance of her spider dance, Lola revisits her bittersweet past, from humble Irish beginnings to becoming one of the world's most notorious women.

With live music from flamenco guitarist Ricardo García, the show celebrates an extraordinary woman who lived like she danced, with all the might of her body and the fire of her soul.

Batsheva Dance Company (Israel)
Mamootot

UK Premiere

Mamootot is performed by Israel's premier dance company, with the audience surrounding the performers on four sides. This proximity gives Mamootot its intense power: in some moments, the entire space is devoured by explosive gestures; in others, a measured stillness takes over.

Part of their week-long Dance Umbrella engagement, Batsheva also performs Three at Sadler's Wells on Mon 20 and Tue 21 Oct.

Rosemary Butcher (UK)
Episodes of Flight

UK Premiere

Consistently radical in her use of cross-arts collaboration and non-theatrical spaces, Rosemary Butcher's newest work, Episodes of Flight, blends visual images and film, a single performer and an urban soundscape in an exquisite and engaging performance.

'...this British artist is an icon of the New Dance movement - radically, uncompromisingly and indefatigably expanding the limits of dance.'
